

The mean is the “centre of mass” of the data.

The median is the “middle observation” in the data set

